On the Right Foot

A large portion of destitute people across the valley aren't able to get proper foot care or even a decent pair of shoes. That's where Hearts to Soles is trying to help. Since 2004, the outreach program has provided free foot examinations and shoes to the needy across the United States. Local orthopedic foot surgeon Dr. Troy Watson has been getting into the act as well. Dr. Watson and his staff will offer free foot screenings to the less fortunate on November 16th while also supplying them with free footwear at the Salvation Army.

Dr. Watson spends time every year fitting the homeless with proper shoes through the Hearts to Soles program. However, tough economic times have led to a decrease in the number of shoes available, so Dr. Watson is seeking donations of new and lightly used men's shoes in sizes eight through thirteen. Donations can be dropped off at any of his three office locations: 2800 E. Desert Inn Road, 8402 W. Centennial Parkway, and 2930 W. Horizon Ridge Parkway. Give the gift of shoes this season and help the less privileged among us stand tall. Visit www.feetmd.com for more information.
